Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: ... nothing to complain of: he had from the time of the making of the first contract until the 1st May, 1920, to register his lien, but did not choose to do so. The learned Local Judge was, in my opinion, quite right. I would dismiss this appeal. Mtodleton, J.:--The evidence quite fails to support the argument of Mr. Davis on the facts. The only question is, whether the lien was registered in time. Under the provisions of sec. 22 (1) of the Act, the lien of the sub-contractor, as well as the lien of the contractor, may be registered during the performance of the contract or within 30 days after the completion or abandonment thereof. This means after the completion or abandonment of the work called for by the original contract, and does not refer to the sub-contract. This was determined by Ritchie, J., in Dempster v. Wright, 21 C.L.T. Occ. N. 88 (Nova Scotia). The owner of the building is not concerned with the distribution of the work between the contractor and his sub-contractor. When, as here, the work as a whole is abandoned, in 30 days all unregistered liens cease. The evidence is very unsatisfactory. The judgment appealed from finds an abandonment of the work in March, and I cannot see my way clear to reverse this. Latchford, J., agreed with Middleton, J. Riddell and Lennox, JJ., agreed in the result. App. Div. 1921 Laesser V. Orechkin. Appeal dismissed with costs. APPELLATE DIVISION. 1921. Mcquillan V. Ryan. Feb. 11. Apl. 21.
