

Notes on Directing: 130 Lessons in Leadership from the Directors Chair

The classic guidebook to the directors craft. After 50 years in the theatre, English director Frank Hauser joins New York writer and director Russell Reich to bring you an inspirational and practical guide that critics are calling provocative, lucid, and indispensable. Luminaries like Dame Judi Dench, Sir Ian McKellen, Sir Richard Eyre, Edward Albee, Moises Kaufman, Rosemary Harris, and Jerry Zaks have hailed Notes on Directing as witty, bold, audacious, and an instant classic. More than a how-to book, this is a tool for directors looking to translate the page to the stage or to the screen and is of immense value to actors, playwrights, students, and teachers. Essential for any student of film or theatre, here is what all directors need to know, and what every actor, scriptwriter, and audience member wants them to know. Includes four appendices, an original acting exercise, a recommended reading list, and an index.
